SARATOGA RACING PLEASES.

PURSLANE WINS THE CHIEF RACE OF THE DAY IN EASY FASHION.

Jeanne d'Arc Defeats Fast Sprinters-Miss Kearney Wins from Practical-Big Track for Havana Reported Assured.

Saratoga. N. Y., August 13.—Saratoga's mid-summer meeting's thirteenth day of racing panned out well, despite the moderate and not intensely hot. humid and rainy weather conditions.

Edward H. Carle, upon whom the care of managing the racing ventures of F. Ambrose Clark had devolved after the latter's retirement on account of his step-father's death, remarked after the steeplechase that it was a day of good omen for him. as the stable boodoo was broken when Ramrod was. Although only two green jumpers started in this race, its running developed more burlesme features and harmless incidents than all the previous cross-country affairs of the present meeting combined. The celebrated Pat Meany was particularly Cambrod because the winner had been trained and schooled for today's race by Pat Callahan, a green and inexperienced country boy whom Meany had brought over from Ireland to learn the rudiments of steeple-chase riding and training. Callahan left Meany's service shortly after his arrival in this country, declaring that he could improve on his methods and meant to show him. He did.

The field in the first and what was really the most pretentions race on the card was seriously depleted by withdrawals. Thomas H. Williams' pair of star three-year-olds. Firestone and Big Chief, being the most conspicuous of the cight absentees, The running resulted in an unset, the two choices. Westbury and Dreamer, as well as Adrinche, Maxfield, Ranyah, Beckon and Oxford, being easily beaten by Jeanne d'Arc, a phenomenally fast three-year-old filly belonging to F. A. Forsythe, which has appeared only four times under colors.

The Amsterdam Selling Stakes, at one mile, was captured by Purslane, which was entered to be sold for $500. C. E. Rowe bild the winner up to $1,000 before he stopped, the stable buying him in for the customary $5 advance. Musgrave, who was recently engaged by Mr. Seagram as first jockey, signalized his first appearance in the colors of the famous Canadian turfman by an easy victory here. The tabled history of t a probable turn star in a prob

Incognito, at odds-on, scored in a one-sided race at six furlongs.

There is a report in circulation here that a fall racing venture will be inaugurated in the state of Michigan, within easy reach of Chicago.

Starter Mars Cassidy will manage a projected race meeting on a big scale at Havana next winter. Four hundred thousand dollars, it is said, will be expended on an up-to-date plant. An exclusive charter has been secured from the Cuban government. The logation is ideal and within easy reach of the capital. Three Havana banks have already subscribed $275.000 of the amount needed for construction.

Oxford pulled up very lame after his race in the opener.

Oxford pulsed up very jame after his face in the opener.

John E. Madden will not ship his horses to New York for another week. He will devote the next few days to trying out a big band of yearlings. Lieutenant Von Wagner, attached to the district afterney's office of Kings County, one of Elder's dientenants, and one who was especially commended by the grand jury for his zeal in harassing racegoers at Brighton Beach, was at the track today. He said he was on a vacation, but it was rumored that he was here looking for evidence against Sheriff Bradley.

lial he was here looking for exhibits a smalley.

Eight of Thomas H. Williams' horses, in charge of d. E. Rowell, were shipped to Yonkers tonight. Firestone and Big Chief are in perfect condition and will race at Yonkers on the opening day.

John G. Cavanagh was notified that Judge Dike of Brooklyn had today sustained the demurrer in his case filed by his attorney, John B. Stanchfield. Mr. Cavanagh says that Judge Dike's decision, declaring the indictment drawn up by Elder is defective, is virtually equivalent to throwing the case out of court.

tive, is virtually equivalent out of court.

J. E. Seagram was not present to witness the success of his horse, Purslane, today.

Miss Kearney's win in the last race marked the twenty-fifth two-year-old success for J. E. Madden

MASKETTE FOR THE ENGLISH OAKS.

Both Keene Crack Fillies Eligible for Classic-Selectman in the Derby.

Saratoga, N. Y., August 13.—It is regarded as strong possibility that in September Mr. Keene we send over a score of yearlings to be trained some first-class English trainer, or perhaps James Rowe.

some first-class English trainer, or perhaps by James Rowe. Friends of Rowe say that he would like to try a sason or two abroad as trainer of a score of Mr. Keene's high-bred horses, and with the possibility of another Colin and Celt to handle, the winning of the Derby, whileh Mr. Keene has not yet achieved, might become a matter of fact.

Mr. Keene has made no nominations to the Derby and Oaks of 1910, but he has four in each of next year's Epsom classics, three of which on their racing here seem fit for any contention.

In the Derby of 1909 Mr. Keene has these four eligibles, of which Selectman is best:
Ultimus, ch. c., by Commando—Running Stream. Esperanto, ch. c., by Voter—Pink Domino.

Wamba, b. c., by Ben Brush—Cap and Bells.
In the 1909 Oaks both Maskette and Wedding Bells are entered, together with Mystify and Sufragette. The Keene eligibles to the Oaks are: Mystify, ch. f., by Disguise—Dominoes.

Wedding Bells, b. f., by Ben Brush—Runaway Girl.
Suffragette, ch. f, by Voter—Noonday.

Suffragette, ch. f. by Voter—Noonday, Maskette, br. f, by Disguise—Biturica.

DIRECTORS TO SELECT LEXINGTON DATES.

Lexington, Ky., August 13.—A meeting of the directors of the Kentucky Association will be held Saturday morning to arrange the dates and details for local fall racing. Secretary Letcher says the meeting will be held in September and that there will be seven or ten days' racing. Betting will be by parl-mutuels and auction pools.

De Coursey Forbes, James R. Keene's confidential man in matters pertaining to racing, is here to look over the thoroughbreds at Castleton Stud and make a selection of twenty-two yearlings and five mares to be shipped to New York Saturday.

John Mackey arrived from New York this morning and began at once an inspection of the yearlings broodmares and stailions at Elmendorf, No announcement has been made as to the probable disposition of Mr. Haggin's yearlings.

SELLING PLATERS RULE AT FORT ERIE.

Big Crowd Sees Ordinary Racers in Action Over a Heavy Track.

Heavy Track.

Buffalo, N. Y., August 13.—Conditions were anything but favorable for good racing at Fort Erie this afternoon. But this did not prevent a big attendance. The speculation was the keenest of the meeting and thirty-seven layers, a record number here, drew in and were kept busy attending to the wants of those speculatively inclined.

Today's card was a poor one composed of selling races, but furnished a good medium for much betting on account of the even caliber of the starters. Choices and second favorites were successful in the first five races, Helen B.'s victory over La Fayette in the closing race being the only good break to favor the layers. La Fayette was strongly supported, probably the best backed of any starter during the afternoon, and should have won, but Pickens made the mistake of keeping him in the worst part of the track during the first three-quarters of the trip and it caused him to tire in the stretch.

P. T. Chinn turned loose a good thing in his first-time starter here, J. H. Reed, which won handly from Dr. Holzberg. In the second race, Chinn again had designs on the purse, but a poor ride by Kennedy upset the plan and caused Joe Gaitens to be beaten a neek by the favorite. Dan de Noyles, Thirteen sprinters of the selling variety went to the post in the third race and the preferred ones, Snake Mary, Marmorean and Stoner Hill, finished in the order named.

The poor send-off in the fourth race was partially responsible for the victory of Edgely over Punky. The latter was away in a tangle and forced to go wide throughout. With an equal send-off with the winner he would have won. Estella C., ranning to her best form, had no difficulty in proving her superiority in the going over a fair band in the fifth. Several of the Valley Farm horses that have been resting at Toronto since the close of the Windsor meeting arrived at Fort Erie today in charge of trainer Dixon.

There was a rumor this afternoon that the proposed half-mile track meeting that was to have taken place at D. E. Lorimer's

ATTORNEY ELDER PAUSES TO SEEK LIGHT Agreement Reached to Send Test Cases to Higher

Court for Adjudication.

Court for Adjudication.

New York, August 13.—The impending trials of persons under arrest for alleged violations of the anti-betting laws at the extraordinary term of the Supreme Court called by Governor Hughes will not take place. This unexpected situation developed today when Acting District Attorney Elder an nounced that an agreement had been reached to take the cases against the officials of the Brighton Beach track direct to the appellate division of the Supreme Court for an interpretation of the new law. The persons against whom the indictments were found are: William Engeman, owner of the Brighton Beach race track; Christopher Fitzgerald, president of the Brighton Beach Racing Association, and J. G. Cavanagh, former superintendent of the betting the permit common gambling on the grounds of the Brighton Beach Racing Association.

Asked in regard to the trials of the thirty-eight men arrested charged with bookmaking, for whom a panel of 150 talesmen had been summoned for August 25, Mr. Elder said that they would not take place. He said that Supreme Court Justice Rodgers, of Watertown, who had been designated by Governor Hughes to hear the cases, was now preparing an order vacating the extraordinary trial term that had been arranged by the governor. Mr. Elder said and that the special grand jury would convene on August 25, as arranged, but would not take up any race track cases.

Until the appellate division of the Supreme Court decides on what is a bet in the meaning of the law, Mr. Elder will give the bookmakers and race track men a rest. Decisions by Justices Bischoff, Gaynor and others as to the intent of the anti-racing law has decided Elder to find out definitely where he stands before pushing the indictments already found.

FANTASTIC DEFEATS EDWIN GUM NARROWLY

Seattle, Wash., August 13.—Fast going once more prevailed at The Meadows today and formful racing resulted. Argonaut, Talarand, Taxer and Fair Fagot scored as favorites, while Edwin Gum and Nanna, the two remaining nublic choices, finished second. Fantastic, which took Edwin Gum's measure by a narrow margin in the most pretentious race of today, had been backed down from a high quotation of 10 to 1 on the strength of fast work in preparation for the race. It was fortunate for her backers, however, that Edwin Gum was poorly ridden by A. Harris, the Walker apprention. Fred Bent and Massa, two of the presumed contenders in the race, failed to run anywhere near as well as expected, and were at no time dangerous factors.

Owner and trainer H. A. Cotton was today restored to good standing. Jockey Gaugel, who was recently suspended, rode F. Neugent, the horse that got Cotton into trouble and the stewards decided it was only fair to give the owner another chance, as the boy's incompetency was probably responsible for the in and-out performances of F. Neugent. The judges also reinstanted jockey C. Sullyan.

Frank Farrar arrived today from Butte with Combury and Meddling Hannah. He reports the sport in flourishing condition at the Montana track, H. G. Bedwell traded Nellie Racine for Beautiful and Best today.

TROUBLE IN THE CARMAN STABLE.

Buffalo, N. Y., August 13.—It is rumored that trainer Claxon, of the R. F. Carman stable, severed his connection this afternoon unknown to R. F. Carman. The latter, it is said, gave Claxon $200 to pay shipping expenses for several of his horses to the Empire City track. The trainer, it is said, appropriated this sum, claiming there was still a balance due him for services. Later is was reported that several of the stable hands had attached the Carman horses for wages due them.

SUDERMAN AND BRIDOON SELL CHEAPLY.

Toronto, Ont., August 13.—Messrs, Burns & Sheppard held at The Repository Tuesday a sale of the thoroughbreds belonging to A. M. Orpen. Among the horses disposed of were Suderman, Bridoon, Irish Duke, Ching Hare, Lawyer Millar and King Holiday, for all of which there was spirited bidding. The competition for the ownership of the first named two was especially keen, and Suderman was eventually bought by Mr. Lewis for $775, while Bridoon became the property of Mr. Lamb for $500.

KEENE AND MADDEN 1908 WINNINGS.

Up to date the Madden horses have won $143,297, and their owner is second in the winning list, some $41,600 behind the Keene establishment, but has won two more races. The showing of the two stables to date is as below:

LATONIA FALL MEETING PROBABLE.

The Latonia folks are now talking about changing the old Milldale course into an automobile track. In the meantime the Kentucky Racing Commission makes no move, and in the end Latonia is likely to reconsider the matter and hold a good fall meeting.

BELMONT MAY INCREASE ENGLISH STABLE. NO SPECIAL TRIALS FOR BRIGHTON FOLKS.

Saratoga, N. Y., August 13.—Three men at Saratoga, who would be nearly certain to know about the alleged intention of Messrs. J. R. Keene and August Beimont to race exclusively abroad, say they know anothing of such a plan. A. J. Joyner and Join Whalen both train for Mr. Belmont, and both said that they have never been consulted about such a plan. There are at present in the care of these two men more that thirty-five horses, the property of Mr. Belmont, Some of these will be sold, perhaps this fall. Whalen says, but there will still be left fifteen or twenty horses which will represent Mr. Belmont next year in this country. If there is any place at which they can be raced.

In England Mr. Belmont already has eight yearlings and about twelve older horses, in care of James Watson, who also trains for Mr. L. de Rothschild. It is possible, horsemen said, that the addition of twenty-one yearlings sent to England on Saturday last may so increase the number as to make it impossible for Watson to continue to train for Mr. Belmont, and in that contingency it might have become necessary to lease a place, and some English trainer named by Watson would be appointed to handle Mr. Belmont's horses.

New York, August 13.—Although Governor Hughes ordered Justice Rodgers, of Watertown, to hold a special term of court in Kings county on August 25 to try William A. Engeman, owner of the Brighton Beach race track, Christopher J. Fitzgerald, president of the Brighton Beach Racing Association, and John G. Cavanagh, who for many years was master of the betting ring, it has now been decided that Justice Rodgers will not hear any jury trials. Last week John B. Stanchfield, attorney for the defendants, made a motion before Justice Dike of the Kings County Court, asking leave to inspect the minutes of the grand jury.

Twice the argument on the motion has been postponed. Wednesday morning it was put off until Thursday next. At that time Mr. Elder declared Justice Rodgers would hold no jury trials. He would simply hear the report of the special grand jury.

"Justice Rodgers," said Mr. Elder, "does not feel that it is necessary for him to sit during the hot weather and listen to jury trials when the regular term of the courts is so soon to commence. He thinks these cases may well go over to the regular term of court."

NO SARATOGA CUP THIS YEAR.

The Saratoga Cup will have no running this year.

As a closed stake race it was one of the events declared off by the Saratoga Association, but preserved under its name for record continuity in the form of an overnight purse race. In that guise it was to have been the fourth race of Thursday, but when the entry box was opened it was found that but one horse had been entered, a vivid illustration of the selfishness and lack of generous public spirit of the great mass of owners. So another race had to be sugstituted and 190s will be a blank year in the history of one of the longest established and most famous of our long-distance fixtures.

The Saratoga Cup was first run in 1865 and was taken by one of the greatest of Lexington's many fast and staying sons, the grand race horse Kentucky. He also won its renewal in 1866. Captain Moore was second in 1865 and Beacon in 1866. The predominence of Lexington as a sire in those days is strikingly attested by the fact that in the first fourteen years of the running of the cup a son ot grandson of Lexington was first or second. Following Kentucky's two victories Lexington's grandson, Muggins, won in 1867 and his grandson, Lancaster, in 1868. Then in 1869 his son, Bayonet, won. In 1870 Helmbold, by Australian, won and Hamburg, by Lexington, was first and Kingisher, by Lexington, second. Then Harry Bassett, by Lexington, was first and Springbok, Lexington, was first and Kingisher, by Lexington, second. Then Harry Bassett, by Lexington, was first and Springbok came together again and made their famous dead heat in 3:563, which stood as the record for two miles and a quarter until Buckwa ran the distance in 3:51 at Oakland, December 31, 1898. Next, in 1876, Tom Ochiltree, by Lexington, was the winner and in two successive years his grandson of Lexington in the maternal line, his dam being Hester, by Lexington. In 1873 Preakness and Springbok came together again and made their famous dead heat in 3:563, which stood as the record for two miles and a quarter until Buckwa ran the Quite industriously employed are the horses belouging to William (Red) Walker, and effectively, also. Stanley Fay and Edwin Gum are more than useful horses, while in Centre Shot, Gemmell and Preen he has three sprinters able to hold their own in almost any sort of company. ## CLUMSY FABLE ABOUT OLD TOBOGGAN.

As clumsy a turf fable as was ever sent out of the fable-land of New York is one recently circulated about old Toboggan drawing a plow in the cotton fields of the south, after winning $100,000 for James R, Keene. The old son of Kingston and Glide was racing Lack the New Orleans merry-gorounds until the Locke law closed them and will race over them again when they re-open, as is threatened. As a matter of fact, Toboggan was always unsound and raced in the Keene colors for but two seasons, not starting as a two-year-old. For Mr. Keene he won in 1903 and 1904 one race and $4,030, his second behind Irish Lad and before Beldame, Highball, Stalwart and others in the Metropolitan Handicap of 1904, earning $2,000 of that total. Naturally an extremely fast horse, his unsoundness made Toboggan unreliable and before the racing of 1905 began. Mr. Keene turned him over to his "cull" operator. "Doc" Streett, who raced him to the close of the regular season at New Orr leans last spring. For Streett Toboggan ran in three years fifty-one races, won sixteen, was second in seven, third in 7 more and unplaced in twenty-one. Toboggan's winnings in six seasons—he is now eight years old—were but $10.824 and of this amount instead of the fable's $100,000 for the Keene stable. Toboggan earned just $4,030. In the table below are the figures of Toboggan's turf career:

SATURDAY'S YONKERS HANDICAP WEIGHTS

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Jockey J. Lee, at Saratoga, is riding with his ribs in plaster. Some were broken in his recent fall.

Up to this season old Platoon in five years racing has run about 130 times and won forty races and about $16,000—nearly all in selling events.

Bute, the faithful servitor of the Saratoga clubhouse, saw the first running of the Travers Stakes in 1864, which was won by Kentucky, ridden by Gilpatrick.

Dr. Andrew Smith and Secretary W. P. Fraser of Toronto, are at Saratoga in the interest of the coming meeting at the Woodbine track, Toronto. Their stake list is an attractive one, and they will get quite an array of entries, as a number of owners who are racing there will go on the Canadian circuit this fall.

Up to the end of last week the Butte, Mont., chief winning owners were: Pasadena Stable (Dick Williams), $8,595; Kenilworth Farm (H. H. Stover), $5,440; J. Brannon, $3,525; E. J. Ramsey, $3,125; J. B. Dunn, $2,550; A. F. Dayton, $2,495, and S. A. Clopton, $2,385. At the same time the leading jockeys were: Shriner, 21 wins; Kirschbaum, 20; E. Clark, 18; Singleton, 15; Butwell, 14, and Vandusen, 10.

TURF REPORTER AND RATINGS BEST BETS:
New York, Have 22; Fort Erie, Hand 26 (use Reporter No. 193).

Remember, The Turf Reporter and Wood's Turf Ratings are now combined, making the strongest and best method of beating the races ever devised. Nothing like it anywhere. Price 25 cents per copy. At all agents or news-stands in the U. S. and Canada or at office.

[Communications without names and addresses of senders will not be answered or noticed; nor will any answers be sent by mail.]

S. & S., Detroit, Mich. Pert was 3 to 5 to show E. F. W. and J. C. W., Chicago. Horses taken from the sixth Fort Erie race to make the fourth race are to be freated as scratches from the sixth race.

J. J., Chicago. A place parlay on Elizabeth Harwood. Apache and Keep Moving August 11 won, being void as to Apache because there was no place price against him, and good as to the other two.
P. A. C., El Paso, Tex. At one time Ten Brocck held the record at one, two, three and four miles, and at several intermediate distances. His record at a mile was 1:39\frac{3}{2}, made at Louisville, May 24, 1877. It stood as the mile record until Racine beat it by running a mile in 1:39\frac{1}{2} at Washington Park, Chicago, June 28, 1890.

TOM M'GRATH'S CONSISTENCY.

In Tom McGrath's four seasons of racing he has been unplaced twelve times, and six of his failures to share the prizes of races were made this season. Up to January 1 last the Saim—Miss Marion sprinter had run in forty-nine races, won $18,230, and been "out of the money" but six times,
